VOLUME 56

ISSUE 27

President's Message:

Last Week's

special guests were Veterans Terry Murphy and Art Miller. They explained the complex arrangements that exist between the County, City, and the Veterans groups. The project appears to be a "win-win" for all concerned. And, we were issued an invitation to return to the Veterans new building, when completed.

This week, our special guest is Peggy Spear, Editor of the Contra Costa Sun. The "Sun" under the tutorship of Peggy has issued some crisp editorials concerning the Moraga Chamber of Commerce and the Lamorinda Skatepark controversy. Today, Peggy will enlighten us concerning the controversy and the principal players.

TODAYS SPEAKER:

Peggy Spear
Editor
Contra Costa Sun

Jack Pugh, of the Moraga club has died. Services will be conducted at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church on January 31st @ 3PM. Jack was a previous member of the San Francisco club; past president of the Berkeley club and past DG of 516.

Meals on Wheels. If you can't make this schedule or have an emergency, please arrange for a substitute, or just swap with another rider. Good job...good Samaritans.
