PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: WHILE I WAS

in Venezuela for Rotoplast, Ed Searby, who just returned from Ecuador, was to be acting President. Well, he returned with a serious "bug" which did not permit him to stand in for me last Thursday. He called upon Bob Shusta to do so.

Bill Eames

Our guest speaker was Julie Sullivan, Bill Eames' secretary for about 9 years. She recently compiled a book about Bill's life and the history of Bill's Drugs. A graduate of Ohio State University in English and Journalism, she previously worked in communications and public relations. Her current project is a book about Lafayette's recent history from the late 1930's to present day, focusing on the businesses and families that helped Lafayette grow. She read three pieces of her research without identifying who they were, but our Rotarians could not be stumped. They recognized the Blodgett family, the Courtright family, and Ed Stokes. Bob Shusta
