President's Message:

Spring Is

in the air and we are surrounded by external uncertainties. We are powerless to do much about the economy, war/politics, stock market, and various budget deficits. But, we can continue our local club projects in fine fashion; we can "sew the seeds of love" in our club and community; we can continue to help stamp out polio; we can continue to make a difference in our schools, and contribute to Rotary's world projects. My goal as Club President is to help us stay focused and committed to help our club grow, and continue the fine work we have been doing since 1947. We are Rotarians.

Last week we had the pleasure of hearing from one of our own...Jay Lifson.

Jay humored us with stories of his early years from Southern California to the present and life in Northern Cal. He has had the courage to try many things and has excelled at all. His comments were held accountable, because he had the pleasure of having his father present. We enjoyed both and can readily see why Jay is such a likeable guy. It is in his genes. Many of us had the opportunity to speak to the elder Mr. Lifson and is very proud of Jay.
