ISSUE 31

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK

Budd MacKenzie discussed the effects he has had in leading the rebuilding of a school in Afghanistan, including both boy and girl students attending the school, which was rebuilt with the help of our club's funds. He also discussed how he was able to make contact through a person from Diablo Valley College, who has a father living in the village in Afghanistan, and could confirm how the funds have been spent, and the results obtained.

This week we will hear about the Civil War and sharpshooters, and we're looking forward to the presentation by Jerry Decius. Let's all turn out, for this should be a very interesting talk.

Let's also give a big sendoff at the end of our meeting to Ed Searby who will be attending PETS (Rotary president-elect training) in San Jose as our incoming president.
