VOLUME 56

ISSUE 32

President's Message: Today is a great day for our Rotary Club. We induct a new member into the Lafayette Rotary family. Let's celebrate our good fortunate and welcome her with open arms. Assisting in the ceremony will be our membership director, President Ron Wake, and Judy's sponsor and Past President Ed Stokes.

Next week we will induct new member, Dan Baker.

Last week we had a special visit from the Sunrise club. Joanne Luscher brought us up to date on the nine-club joint Tanzania project. We are participants in the funding portion of the bridge building effort. New member Judy Francis will keep us abreast of the joint efforts to fill a container to be shipped to Ghana during the summer. And, of course our guest speaker was Moe Levich of Generations in Jazz. You've heard the saying "he loves his job." That describes Moe to the max. He lights up like a Christmas tree when he starts talking about his music programs and the benefit they provide to the school music departments. Tom Carter accompanied Moe and gave us an update on the foundation.

TODAYS SPEAKER:
Club Assembly

A 20 foot Container was delivered to Stanley Middle School this past Tuesday. Students at Stanley will be collecting books and other items for Osu Salem JSS school in Accra, Ghana. Students at Stanley are designing a banner for the container which will include the Rotary Wheel logo, and possibly our club and the Sunrise clubs names, that will be shipped to Ghana, Africa by the end of the school year. Our club and the Sunrise club will be helping the students with the banner costs, and container shipping costs and logistics. District Governor Brad Howard is also involved with the project. He is a member of the Alameda Rotary Club, and District Governor of District 5170.

Next week, in addition to the induction of Dan Baker, we will host the Russian delegation for lunch, and then catch up on the latest attorney jokes. Tim McKinley, a fine gentleman and trustworthy Rotarian will also share with us what it was like to act as "auto raffle ticket accountant" for Bob Shusta and Bob Aguilar.

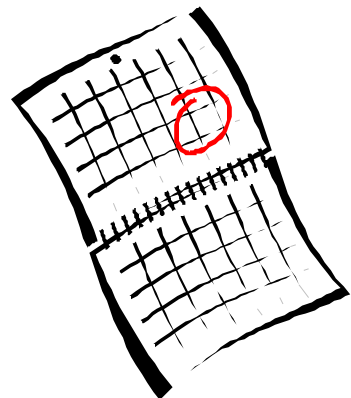

This Saturday, our club is joining Orinda is manning a food booth at the Lafayette community center to help raise funds for the Moraga skatepark. We need 4-6 volunteers to work approximately two hours between 12-5 PM.
