PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK'S

speaker, Jerry Decius, came dressed as a Confederate soldier. He discussed the uniform, as well as the equipment a typical Confederate soldier would have.

He also brought and explained the Sharpshooter rifle.

He uses the one he displayed in Civil War reenactments. The Sharpshooter rifle is front loading and does not have a round bullet, which increases its accuracy and range.

We had a lengthy questions-answer period during which many of our members got individual answers to specific questions on the Civil War, and we all learned a great deal about our country's history.

Let's all welcome back Ed Searby, who attended PETS (President Elect Training) last weekend in San Jose. Bill Eames
