

Rotations

APRIL 1, 2004 Official Weekly Bulletin of the Rotary Club of Lafayette

VOLUME 57

ISSUE 33

THE PREZ SAYS : IT'S THAT TIME

again! It's spring forward time, maybe setting your clock ahead will help you Rotarians get an earlier start to recover from the fantastic wine bus trip on Sat April 3rd. Bob Aguilar and Jay Lifson have planned a great trip... there may be a few open seats if any of you Rotarians or friends want to attend...call Bob. The Rotary calendar says that April is magazine month! Which magazine you ask? Why the "Rotarian" of course. Our magazine highlights world travel, international projects, different insights into many businesses, words of wisdom from our international president, jokes, and just about anything you are looking for. I've tried to emphasize some facts and stories from our "Rotarian" in the much anticipated Rotary Minute over the year, try reading the magazine, you'll be glad you did! Last week we heard four students from Acalanes High School who participated in the "Four Way Test" speech contest. The students were: Katie Curtis, Jeff Hook, Shauna Kennedy, and Tim O'Neill. They all did a great job relating the "Four Way Test" to experiences in their lives...it was a difficult choice but our Rotarians thought that Shauna Kennedy gave the best presentation, congrats Shauna, now you are on to the southern section District 5160 finals, good luck. We would like to again thank their instructor Larry Freeman who selected the students for what he explained was their first public presentation! They did this because they felt they could meet the challenge and only found out when they got here that their efforts would be well rewarded with $100 to the runners up and $200 to the winner. Thanks again Larry and students. Lend a Hand. Ron Wake
