PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK'S

program was extremely interesting with Dr. Lu Lilly, who spoke about her experience as not only an athlete but also working within the athletic departments at different colleges. Dr. Lilly started as a competitive swimmer strictly out of accident while swimming with her mother in the Portland, Oregon, area. She then attended college and participated in the athletic department, choosing a major in College Athletics. At this time women's athletics was just starting to grow on its own, and at different times had confrontations with various coaches and athletic department heads. She gave a number of examples where extreme courage paid off in her past career and was very enlightening. We'd also like to thank the Lafayette Soroptimists, for many of their members attended this meeting to hear Lu Lilly discuss Women in Athletics. Bill Eames
