THE PREZ SAYS : WHEW!!!

What a busy weekend! It all started Friday night, Larry Duson arranged a great dinner at Uncle Yu's, we had a huge table with the Vitale's, Toomajian's Wake's, Lifson's, Duson's, Blodget's, and Chris Lane all consuming the fantastic food. We then attended the Town Hall Theater where we saw an amusing play "Room Service". Sat. Morning we met at The Bank of the West where Larry served us a great breakfast of Johnny's donuts and coffee to rejuvenate us for the morning Egg Scramble. We had a great turn out, thanks to Mr. Bunny Greg Vaisnor, the kids had a great time, the Lafayette and Moraga police also helped. We all agreed that the downtown site is ideal for our function. At the same time Sandy Mitchell and Peggy Harbarth were helping the Stanley School Singers perform for the residents of three of the elder care facilities in town. There were a dozen kids out early on a Saturday morning doing their part to brighten the day for some appreciative audiences, they also handed our stuffed animals to the residents. Thanks all! Last week we heard from Bud McKenzie as he described Greg Mortenson's work in Afghanistan setting up schools for all children. He wants to help the people understand that we would like to treat them as individuals and not just as people with lots of natural resources. Our next meeting features Paul Fisher who will relate the role of the Rotary Foundation in our lives. Be there, Lend a Hand! Ron Wake
