President's Message:

About

45 of us showed up at Aladdin's for our weekly meeting. A glass of Chardonnay, cozy fireplace, and intimate seating provided for a perfect environment for a "book reading". So, that is what we did. Midge Shusta walked us through the inspirational and structural process of writing her book,

Tsali's Hatchet. Midge based her story on actual people and places, but blended in enough fiction to satisfy the basic elements of storytelling. Aladdin's was a trial run for us to help determine where we could possibly meet during lunch on 5/8, 6/12, and 6/19. Our normal meeting room at Oakwood will not be available on those dates. Despite several Rotary has negotiated for prime reserved field level seating for the Twins/A's baseball game on 5/21 @ 12:15. The Wednesday game will be our program for that week. The tickets are $24 each and $10 of that is allocated to our commitment to Polio Plus. The District Governor will throw out the first pitch. It is a great opportunity to raise funds while having fun. Please invite family, friends, co-workers, etc. to the ballpark. We may be able to organize a tailgate party or organize a bus pool. Sandi Mitchell (Polio Plus Coordinator) will be our point person.

Next week our guest speaker will be Phillip Denny, stepson of Ray Bland, and son of COC Executive Director, Ann Denny.
