PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK'S

speaker, Matt Luttrepe, civil engineer for the city of Lafayette, gave us a very interesting program on Moraga Road and the changes to expect there this summer.

Lafayette is extending sidewalks on both sides of Moraga Road for some distance, then on the Silver Springs side all the way down to Silver Springs, with anticipation that more children will walk to school. Our club had a lot of questions, not only about rebuilding the road but also about the new type of traffic-activated lights that will be installed as part of the program. Our Fine Master did an outstanding job last week and it was noted that our City Manager (Steve Falk) caused extreme mental concern as well as anguish, as defined by our local attorney, Tim McKinley. Steve had the honor of introducing our speaker but did not show up until the fines were nearly completed. Our Rotary Club (Lafayette Rotary) had the honor of donating $5,000 to the Lafayette Community Foundation for the benefit of the Lafayette
