the last major planning meeting for our Rotary Concert At the Res. The major areas are, food preparation, set up and take down, food service. Raffle ticket sales, transportation, advertising, and gofer. Our whole club needs to help out with this program, choose an area where you can help, or just show up Saturday morning, there's lots to do...May 15th is the date.. See you there, please "Lend a Hand" Let's make our 10th Annual Concert at the Res, a big success so we can raise money for our club's projects and donate musical instruments to the schools. Have you sold your raffle tickets yet? Contact your friends, business associates, people you know, all those you don't know, call in your markers, buy them for your family, buy them for yourself...then turn the money in to Charlie, thanks for your donation to our cause. Last week we entertained the Russian Bakery Owners during our luncheon meeting. With the help of the wonderful chef at the Lafayette Park Hotel, they each made a fruit dessert for us to enjoy, one of them commented that even though he owned a bakery, he was proud that he could make something with his own hands for us to enjoy. Zina gave the club a beautifully decorated Russian Mug. They represented bakeries of just a few employees, to bakeries of over 178 employees. They each spent a few minutes describing their origins and some impressions of their travels so far. Be sure to reserve your place at the farewell party at Adrian Mendes' home in Alamo this Tuesday May the 4th. This has been a very satisfying project over the years, get involved, meet some of the delegates. We would also like to thank Ed
