PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: TOM AND

Elizabeth Henry were so gracious to hold the Debunking party for Bill Eames at their home. The photos of our past president in cowboy outfit with leather protectors and side guns truly reflected the rowdy way he led our club. Tim McKinley read the charges against this "drug dealer," who then hid the funds in community banking. It was a very enjoyable presentation and a historical highlight of Bill's shady and illicit past. Tom Courtright's evidence that someone would even go back to school in an effort to further hide money from the tax authority of an FBI agent (Tim is retired) showed Tim's loyalty to his past and to the law profession. We're all looking forward to Bill's last Rotary meeting today ... and let's hope he shows up more in his first year as past-president than he showed up during his presidency!

Signed,

The Donut Group
