President's Message: Today We

welcome District Governor Mark von Hoetendorff.

Hopefully, we will have the pleasure of also meeting his wife Darlene, and loyal Assistant District

Governor Don French. We met Don as he has attended a previous board meeting. Many of the topics Mark addresses today are part of our 2002/2003 goals and will be revisited. See a board member for a list of Club and District Goals as outlined by the District. They are on page 3 of the District directory.

TODAYS SPEAKER :
District Governor
Mark von Hoetendorff

Last week Jennifer Shaw, Editor of the Contra Costa Sun was our guest speaker. Her enthusiasm for her work within the community was evident. She certainly felt comfortable with our members as she looked around the room and recalled newsworthy stories involving Orchard Nursery, The Nut Factory, Diablo Foods, Roundup Saloon, Lafayette Park, City Manager, etc. Jennifer was also proud to announce the arrival of her first born in September. Thank you for a stimulating visit and congratulations Jennifer.

Also, Past President Mike Heller passed out "thank you" books to last year's team. What a terrific way to recognize our stars. This fall, when the winter rain and wind return, visit the Library and locate your donated book. It is a good feeling.

Ed Searby reported that our new directory would be in member's hands within two weeks. Ed's family vineyard was mentioned in the Wednesday food section of the Chronicle.

Bob Shusta updated us on the fire truck project. Because of a lack of "matching grant" dollars, delivery of the truck is on life support.

Next week our speaker will be Chris Olson, Credit Officer, Mt. Diablo Bank. The way the market has been going, credit may be the hottest topic in the country. It will be an interesting and provocative presentation.

SPOTLIGHT: Bud Moulthrop. Club Service Director. This week the spotlight is on Bud Moulthrop. Bud has a welcome smile and a quip for every situation. He has a footprint that spans most of the bay area and he can regale with Rotary stories spanning many years. He started with the Oakland club and claims to have had a beer with Paul Harris while on a Navy liberty in Singapore during World War II. It is obvious he and lovely wife Patty enjoy life, family and each other. In serving our club Bud will be seeking your assistance in the following: Setup/breakdown of all meetings; district conference attendance; Rotaract/Interact Clubs; Octoberfest foundation fundraiser (donation prize, sale of raffle tickets, attendance).
