PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK

we had a rare treat in the "Expose Yourself" series wherein one of our members gives a talk about ANYTHING that interests him or her. Jess Wellen gave us a biographical sketch, starting from birth in Harlem, growing up in Queens, a philosophy degree from Trinity College, west to the Summer of Love, raising a family in Marvelous Marin, the high-flying condo syndication of the seventies, perils of tax law changes and rocketing interest rates, then converting a carwash into an automobile appearance enhancement center in Lafayette. Along the way, finding time to woo and win Theresa. She and Jess' son Blake, who has recently joined the management of the car care facility, came to the meeting. Thank you Jess for a great telling of a great tale! For the rest of us, I hope Jess' story telling will inspire, not intimidate. Remember these exposé's can be ANYTHING you want to talk about. Something you believe in, an experience, or even a book you have read. Within this membership are some great stories that I hope we will hear.

This week our anticipated speaker could not make it. Since we have a golf tournament coming up on Monday we are going to talk about that and try to organize a few things better than they are right now. In view of Air Frances adventure at Toronto International, your president has a few minutes of aviation to talk about.
