PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: LAST WEEK'S

meeting had two very significant highlights. First, Judy Francis agreed to have one of her kisses auctioned off as a way of raising money for our club. After repeated bids between Ron Wake and Greg Vaisnor we finally had a winning bid of $5.25. We would like to congratulate Judy for her personal support of Lafayette Rotary! Our second major event was Ed Stokes' recap of great men in U.S. history, showing that success in one part of life is not necessarily an indication of success in later life.

The presentation got so long that the president finally had to pay Ed two dollars to end his bit of wisdom. We would like to thank Tim McKinley for his one hundred dollar contribution for the Paul Harris Foundation, and congratulate him not only on being a good Rotarian but also a good citizen, in enabling the state to come up with a guilty verdict at the appropriate time. Bill McCabe, who recently sold his business, has resigned his post as president-elect. Therefore the club's Past President position is vacant and the Board of Director's will be seeking a new person to fill this slot. Barbara Hogan from Future Explorers showed two videos which really brought home the great work they're doing with their program in Lafayette, and the outstanding state recognition they have received.
