The Prez Says : 9-11...The day that changed our lives, I know we all have said a prayer in our own way for the thousands that lost loved ones just a few years ago. Let's work through Rotary International to make good changes in our world!

Greetings to our newest member, Eric DeLaCerna! He is a product of our area schools and attended St. Mary's College. He has become an asset to his bank and we welcome our young new member. Thanks again to all you meals on wheels volunteers. It was great to see Bob Underwood at the meeting, just think, he donated his time with this program for years...Thanks again Bob, look at the long list of people that it took to replace you! We look forward to when you're up and active again. Last week we heard from Hugo Daems who worked with the Belgian government in the Congo. He lived in a remote village and gave us some insight into the explosive Liberian situation. Ample guns, foreign aid and the young population have created armed unrest in that country. Thanks Rotarians for signing up to help out at the September 20-21 Art and Wine Hot dog booth. Let's all pitch in and make this a fun project. How are you doing with your Brazilian Carnival Rotary Foundation ticket sales? Attend the function, win prizes, eat too much, have fun, donate to the Rotary Foundation in a fun way. Let's get a good group of our members to attend...what are you doing on Saturday, Oct 18? Let's go to the Dixon May Fair function. Thanks honored Rotarians: Dick Holt, birthday $200 donation to Paul Harris; Sandi Mitchell $50 anniversary; and Tom Courtright, our international Nurseryman and anniversary, $5. Let's all "Lend A Hand"! Prez Ron.
