President's Message: Last Week

our esteemed treasurer Laura O'Donaghue walked us through a wondrous life, from childhood, marriage, and motherhood to Rotary. Laura never quite finished her stories, and will pick up this week...frolicking with sailors on the Mediterranean.

Next Week: Our honored guests will be Rick Meyer of Acalanes Music Department and Bob Athayde from Stanley. We will recognize and reward their achievements for a job well done in regards to the Rotary Concert @ RES. In addition, we will have a short presentation by fellow Rotarian Pat Patterson, our South District coordinator for Polio Plus. Then we'll discuss upcoming events and projects, or anything else the membership wants to address.

Sow the Seeds of Love. Ed Stokes, our 2002/2003 Honorary President is celebrating his 80th birthday with a golf tournament on Wednesday, October 23rd. Commitments are Webb, Lifson, Vaisnor, Searby, Holt, Wake, Bernson, Mitchell, Bland, Jensen, McKinley, and McCabe. It is still pending, but it appears our Rotary party is rounding into place. We'll feature fine wines, cheeses, condiments, music, and the magical setting of Orchard Nursery. $25 per person with net proceeds going to Polio Plus. Required dress: Men—Turtle Necks & Women—Necklaces (Neck & Neck). Rotarians, their guests, and “friends of Ed” (FOE 80th birthday) are invited.

Art & Wine. We had a few laughs with Bill McCabe and his “free range” cattle stories, but his beef burgers were serious stuff. The rave of the A&W was Bill’s Burgers. Thanks Bill. Can you break another cow’s leg for us next year? Our booth was close to the music and manned by an intrepid group of volunteers: Bill and Sandy McCabe, Tim McKinely, Larry Blodgett, Alan Mac, Amanda Heller, Sandi Mitchell, Bob Underwood, Jerry Jensen, Ed Searby, Peggy Harbarth, Mike Henn, Paul Parkhurst, Tom Henry, Laura

O'Donoghue, Charlie Vitale, Doug & Josh Johnson. Sandi Mitchell also worked the information booth along with Ed Stokes. Between the two booths, and the auto raffle, we generated a lot of visibility for Rotary.

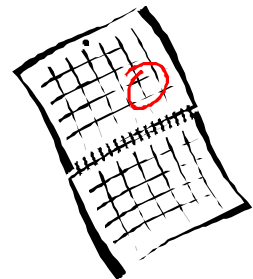

The auto raffle got off to a good start, especially Sunday as past president Tom Henry swung into high gear. I'm not sure exactly what Tom was doing, but as much fun as he was having, it didn't appear to be work. Board director Bill McCabe and chair Mike Heller, aided by the hard working Amanda deserve kudos for a great effort. Now, let's band together and sell out these auto raffle tickets.
