turn out for a fun event! We cooked and served stacks and stacks of pancakes, links and links of sausages, OJ and lots of drinks. Many thanks to Mitchell, Turner, Searby, Eames, Shusta, Parkhurst, Kearney, Lifson, Mac, McKinley, Bland, Vitale, Falk, Johnson, Henry, Scott, Amanda, Angela, (sorry if I left you off the list), and finally Mike Heller our organizer and crew boss extraordinaire. The Reservoir Run was a success with over 300 more runners than last year, fantastic weather, and lots of hungry people. We're looking forward to fine tuning the event for next year... Last week we got to meet our District Governor Connie Crawford. She asked us to Lend a Hand of friendship to others and to involve the Family of Rotary by bringing friends and family to Rotary. She also honored our members for being Movers: Ed Stokes, Shakers: Bob Underwood, and Dream Makers: Bob Shusta, some of our members who have been instrumental in guiding our club over the years. Our thoughts go out to those who lost so much in the devastating fires in the Southlands. Our Rotary District has some ideas of ways to help out through Rotary, ask if you're interested...Our Pre-Holiday Party and Tree Auction is coming up soon, most of the plans are made, sign up to help out on Friday the 7th. Please turn in any tickets you are not going to sell, they are a great value to the right person, lots of good food, drink, socializing, and auction items. We would like to attract your friends to the party to see us at our best and to enjoy themselves. Invite your friends. Lend a Hand. Ron
