Official Weekly Bulletin of the Rotary Club of Lafayette
29 NOVEMBER 2007 VOLUME 62 ISSUE 18

Mike Heller called the meeting to order, substituting for President Larry Duson.

Guests: Steve Snyder, CMG Mortgage, who has applied for membership. Jessica Pallares, our Rotary Youth exchange student from Spain.

Tom Henry announced that our club's old web site has bulletins and fabulous photographs from as far back as 2001. If you want to save anything to your computer, do it within the next two weeks, as he will be shutting down the old site. Mike Heller suggested that we find a way to merge the two sites as preserving club history is important. Old site: www.rotaryclublafayette.org. New site: www.rotarylafayette.org.

Mike Heller presented a Rotary badge and polo shirt to Jessica Pallares, our Rotary Youth exchange student from Spain.

Mike Henn passed around a sign up sheet for poll workers for the Feb 5 election.

Dick Holt announced the Meals on Wheels Crab Feed on Feb 15. See him for tickets.

John Sherry said this is your last chance to sign up for the Reno Train Trip in January. The Rotary Dist. 5160 District Conference is April 24-26 in Sacramento. The Rotary International Convention is in Los Angeles in June.

Fine Master A.J. Nisen collected Happy Dollars and Fines: A.C. Webb for his picture in the newspaper. A.J. for the Orinda Farmers Market. Dick Holt for his cell phone ringing.

SPEAKER

Karen Frank of Miss Karen's Productions talked about "Changing the world by tapping into whom you know." She asked, "How would it feel if, whenever you talked about your business you knew you would get the results that you want, be able to help more people, enjoy yourself and have fun?" She advised us to use your heart and not your head, be specific, and to let people know what problems you solve in your business. The four most dangerous words: "I already knew that." She conducted a fun networking exercise.
